

Died.

HASKELL.—Monday, November 14th, at her home in Blackman, of consumption, Mrs. G. W. Haskell, aged 62 years.

The funeral took place Wednesday from the residence.

DORRANCE.—Tuesday, November 15th, at Ann Arbor, of diabetes, Mendall B. Dorrance, youngest son of W. H. Dorrance, aged 15 years.

LEWANDOWSKA.—Monday, November 14th, at her home on Porter street, of consumption, Veronika Lewandowska, aged 21 years.

Funeral Thursday morning at St. John's church.

SMITH.—November 16th, at Rives, of consumption, Ella T. Smith, aged 20 years.

Funeral on the 18th inst.

SPOOR.—November 18, at 227 Ten Eyck street, of consumption, Sarah Amolia, wife of F. G. Spoor, aged 31 years.

BUNKER.—At her home, three miles north of Grass Lake, on Wednesday, November 15th, 1887, Mrs. Lavina Bunker, in the 82d year of her age.

Deceased came to Michigan while yet it was a territory, and settled upon a farm, where more than half a century of her life was passed. Her ancestry was Puritan. She was born in New London, Conn., November 20th, 1805; removed therefrom to New York in 1816; was married November 20th, 1826, to John Bunker, who died at the old homestead in 1870. She removed to Michigan in 1830 and was among the earliest settlers of Jackson county. The survivors of her family are three sons, Samuel and George, of Grass Lake, and Robert E., of Muskegon.

MAITLAND.—At Michigan City, Ind., Nov. 14, of diphtheria, Levina Maitland, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Maitland, of this city, aged 8 years, 8 months and 2 days.

The remains will be kept in a vault at Michigan City until cold weather, when they will be removed to this city for interment.

COLGROVE.—At Fayetteville, Tenn., October 17th, of old age, John M. Colgrove, aged 85 years.

His wife died two months and one day previous, aged 79 years. The family formerly resided in Norvell.

MOREHOUSE.—At her home in Henrietta, Friday night, November 18th, of congestion of the lungs, Mrs. Frances Morehouse, widow of Erastus Morehouse.

CASE.—Nov. 18, at his home, four miles east of Brooklyn, Captain Case, of heart disease.

Captain Case is well known throughout the county, having been an old resident and an extensive land holder. The funeral occurred Sunday afternoon.